Our School – A Brief Introduction

　　The Arts & Technology Education Centre was formerly known as the Practical Education Centre, which was established by the government in 1986. The Centre now offers arts and technology courses to public sector schools without the facilities or teachers. To reflect more accurately the nature of the Centre in terms of the subjects offered, it was renamed as Arts & Technology Education Centre in 2004.

　　In 2007-2008, 12 partner schools sent their students to study in this Centre. Most of the courses are for Secondary 1 – 3 and the medium of instruction is mainly Chinese. But for courses attended by non-Chinese students and students from EMI schools, the courses are conducted in English. The Centre extended its Visual Arts course to senior secondary level in 2002 and started to offer Applied Learning courses in 2005.

　　Our Centre has 26 fully equipped air-conditioned teaching areas. These include 3 Technology Laboratories and 7 Workshops for Design & Technology, each accommodating 20 students; 8 Visual Arts Rooms, each accommodating 40 students; and 8 Home Economics Rooms, each accommodating 20 students. In addition, there is also 1 Information Technology Resource Centre, 1 Food Science Laboratory and 1 Video Studio. Since the completion of the School Improvement Programme in 2004, the Centre has been equipped with a lift for the disabled, a Conference Room, an IT preparation room and a Multi-purpose Area to facilitate quality learning and teaching in the Centre.
